National Capital Region

2010 Strategic Plan

Background

The Young Environment Professionals (YEP) of Canada began in 1998, and since then, the number of chapters, members and local activities have grown successfully. YEP chapters in Vancouver, Calgary, Edmonton, Toronto and the National Capital Region have delivered over 100 speaker events to over 2000 members and participants. In addition, chapters have also provided special initiatives that have included professional development workshops, conference opportunities, networking sessions and mentoring.

This positive momentum is the result of hard working chapter volunteers and active members, alongside a shared commitment to providing professionals with opportunities related to the environment and sustainable development.

Young Environmental Professionals of the National Capital Region (YEP NCR) was launched in January 2001. YEP NCR is the chapter for YEP members in the Ottawa-Gatineau area. The NCR chapter is a registered, mission-focused, not-for-profit that holds regular speaker-related events to accommodate a growing local membership of approximately 600 members young environmental and sustainable development professionals.

Our Mission

YEP NCR will deliver events and others services that focus on education, engagement and employment within the context of the environment and sustainable development,

- Education is offered through informal learning opportunities such as the YEP web site, and YEP workshops and speaker sessions, as well as special events at Globe, Energy and Environment Conference (EECO) and Americana conferences, as well as special seminars such as those with the Commissioner of the Environment and Sustainable Development
- Engagement is provided through mentoring and support at YEP monthly events, and by facilitating member participation in community activities and projects.
- Employment is supported through distribution of job postings and by bringing potential employers and employees together at monthly events...

YEP NCR is building and sustaining a strong base of local members, partners and volunteers, while providing leadership within YEP's national network of chapters.

Our Leadership

All members of the leadership group are volunteers, and they contribute to the efficient operation of YEP NCR and the national network of YEP chapters.

In order to provide members with quality events and services throughout the year, YEP NCR recruits a core group of member volunteers that dedicate their time to the success of the chapter. There are two volunteer bodies that guide the management of YEP NCR: for all strategic matters a board of directors holds responsibility; and, for day-to-day operations, the chapter has a management team.

YEP NCR has a Board of Directors that sets the strategic priorities and develops partnerships.

Strategic Planning Purpose

The purpose of this Strategic Plan is to confirm the vision and mission for YEP National Capital Region, and establish specific strategic priorities.

The Strategic Plan will guide activities for the calendar years of 2009 and 2010. The Strategic Plan includes a budget for the calendar year 2009, and within the framework of the Strategic Plan, a new budget for calendar year 2010 will be in place by January 2010.

This approach to the strategic planning process will ensure that YEP NCR strategic plans and fiscal years are both based on calendar years. Looking ahead to the calendar year and fiscal year for 2011, the YEP NCR Strategic Plan for 2010 will be in place by January 2010 and annually every January thereafter.

All measures in the Strategic Plan, including the purpose outlined above, are approved by the Board of Directors and establish the mandate for implementation of the Strategic Plan by the Management Team.

Our Achievements in 2009

Building on YEP Canada's ten year track record, YEP NCR is delivering results for its members. In 2009 speaker and networking events included respected leaders of our time and special events provided networking opportunities for members. These include:

February: Donald Lemmen, Natural Resources Canada

March: Lilian Hayward, Indian and Northern Affairs

April: Mike Nickerson, The Sustainability Project

May: Vicki Sharp, President and CEO of Sustainable Development Technology Canada

May: Looking Towards Copenhagen: A Discussion on Climate Change with the British High Commissioner to Canada and the Danish Ambassador to Canada

June: Annual YEP Scavenger Hunt

October: Ian Davidson, Nature Canada

November: Melissa Creede, Sapis Insight

December: Annual Holiday Celebration

In addition to these specific events, YEP NCR accomplished many of its strategic objectives for 2009 including:

- Delivered seven speaker events and two networking events (Annual Holiday Party and Annual Scavenger Hunt) for members in the Ottawa-Gatineau area, of which the networking resulted in $170 of donations to the Ottawa Mission.
- Distributed information on employment opportunities, conferences and other events to members
- Recruited new leaders to the Management Team
- Regularly maintained the website

The success of 2009 builds on work in Ottawa-Gatineau to deliver other events with respected and reputable leaders such as:

- Jonathan Westeinde, Windmill Developments
- Ian Campbell, Policy Research Initiatives
- The Honorable Charles Caccia, Institute of the Environment
- Rick Findlay, Pollution Probe
- Glen Toner, Carleton University
- Scott Findlay, Institute of the Environment
- Katherine Sierra, Vice President, Sustainable Development Network, World Bank
- Stuart Hickox, One Change, Project Porch light
- Maureen O'Neil, President of the International Development Research Centre
- Karl-Henrik Robèrt, Founder, The Natural Step
- Kevin Brady, Director Five Winds International
- Johanne Gélinas, former Canada's Commissioner for the Environment and Sustainable Development
- Elizabeth May, Leader of the Green Party of Canada; former Executive Director, Sierra Club of Canada
- David McGuinty, former Chair of the National Roundtable on the Environment and the Economy
- In addition, YEP NCR hosted a number of speakers at the June 2007 Forum for Emerging Environmental Leaders at EECO, including among others, Mike Gerbis, President and CEO, The Delphi Group, The Honorable John Godfrey, MP, Don Valley West, and Peter Love, Chief Energy Conservation Officer of the Ontario Power Authority

Our Partners

YEP Canada, and YEP National Capital Region, are fortunate to have excellent relationships with reputable public, private and community sponsors such as:

- TD Friends of the Environment
- Delphi Group
- Green Drinks
- Signals
- Institute of the Environment

YEP also secured in-kind contributions from the following local businesses for our holiday celebration and our annual scavenger hunt

- Mountain Equipment Coop - Ottawa
- Bridgehead
- Lush
- Milk
- Sapis Inshight

Our Membership

Approximately every two years (December 2004, June 2006), YEP NCR undertakes a web-based questionnaire to learn more about the interests of its members. Over both years, the responses were consistent: members were more than satisfied with their YEP NCR experience.

A survey will be completed in spring 2010 to assess the educational and professional experience of YEP members, as well as their environmental interests and priorities. The results of the survey will inform future strategic plans.

Looking to our Future: New Opportunities for 2010

YEP NCR will build on its successes in an effort to provide members with positive professional development experiences. 2009/10 is an opportunity for YEP NCR to continue the activities that benefit our members and partners.

YEP NCR's goals for 2010 focus on four key areas

1. Building strong leadership, chapter organization and management;
2. Enhancing member communication, participation and satisfaction;
3. Developing a community of young environmental professionals interested in environment and sustainable development issues by offering monthly events and exploring new opportunities; and
4. Building partnerships between members, established professionals, industry and environment and sustainable development organizations.
